

I do not own the 62 television stations that would enable me to directly affect the upcoming election. Sinclair does and that is obviously their intent, despite their ridiculous claim that this will be "news" programming. Surely the FCC must be considering pre-emptive action against this. Any action taken after the election will be too late. In these troubled times we cannot allow big money and corporate greed to tip the scales in favor of either side. Thank you.